INTRODUCTION

1713500

A number of years ago, I began the collection of data concerning our branch of the Wagner family, but as I could not find any records any farther back than the marriage of my great grandfather, Philip Wagner, of Baltimore County, Maryland, I laid it aside, hoping to obtain more information at some time in the future, but as I did not succeed, after some years, I decided to put together what records I had.

Most of the information about Philip Wagner was given me by my mother, Annie (Wagner) Radcliff, of Frederick, Maryland, and her sister, Agnes (Wagner) Leatherwood, of Dodge City, Kansas, and by my cousin, Sewell Stansbury Watts, of Baltimore, Maryland -- all three of whom are now deceased. I am very sorry not to have found the names of Philip Wagner's parents, or those of his wife's parents. I am greatly indebted to many relatives for the information which they gave me about some of the descendants of Philip and Violet Wagner, and return sincere thanks to Edith (Wagner) Groff, Nannie (Delaplane) Haugh, Anna B. (Watts) Jewel, Maud (Watts) Tase, Mrs. Nina H. Watts, my sister Edith H. Radcliff, and to my husband Dr. E. T. Evans, and to many others without whose help this little genealogy would have been impossible. I greatly regret that many of these records are not up to date, or complete, and there are probably many changes of address, births, marriages, and deaths of which I have no record, but I have done the best I could with what I could obtain and thank all who have helped me.

One thing that is noticable about the family is that it is almost entirely Protestant, and that a large number belong to the Methodist Church.

PHILIP WAGNER
AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Philip Wagner and Violet Wonn were married January 18, 1807

This record was found in three different places: In the old family Bible, which belonged to my aunt, Agnes (Wagner) Leatherwood, of Dodge City, Kansas, it said, "Philip and Violet Wagner were married 1-18-1807"

In the old Bible of Mrs. Mina H. Watts, of Baltimore, Md., it said, "Violette Wonn married Philys Wagner, Jan. 18, 1807."

And from the Superior Court of Baltimore County, Md., this record was obtained, Philip Wagoner married Violet Vaughan, January 18, 1807."

The last names are not spelled the same as in the two family Bibles, but I feel confident the record is of the same marriage.

In the old Bible belonging to Mrs. Watts was this record of the births of Violette Wonn and those of her brother and sister.

"Violette Wonn, born Oct. 4th, 1778

William Wonn, born Whit Sun, Sept., 1782

Comfort Wonn, born Sept. 27th, 1786"

I regret that it did not state where they were born or the names of their parents.

PHILIP ~~WAGNER~~
AND HIS DESCENDANTS

FIRST GENERATION

1-Philip Wagner, m. 1-18-1807 to Violet ~~Wonn~~ Violet (Wonn) Wagner
was born Oct. 4, 1778

Philip and Violet Wagner lived on their farm near Pikesville, Baltimore County, Md., and were buried in the family burying ground on the farm. I have been told that the graveyard is no longer there, as it was plowed over many years ago. The farm was sold years ago to Mr. Councilman, and was familiarly known as "The Councilman Place," and I have heard "it was considered one of the show places of the community." The land has now been converted into a golf course by some of the Jews of Baltimore.

Sewell S. Watts, of Baltimore, tried to help me by ascertaining the name of Philip Wagner's father. Sewell's cousin, Philip Watts, of Pikesville, said that while he didn't know the name of Philip Wagner's father, that "before Philip Wagner bought the place near Pikesville, that he had lived on the Liberty Road above Randallstown, on a farm owned by his father." I had the old land records of the Superior Court of Baltimore searched but they did "not show the name of Wagner (or Waggoner) prior to the appearance of Philip Wagner." I tried to ascertain if Philip Wagner, or his father, had rendered service in the Revolutionary War, but Philip Watts said that "neither Philip Wagner, nor his father had served in the Revolutionary War, or the War of 1812, and according to tradition, Philip Wagner was the oldest of the Wagner boys of his generation and was not born until after the Revolution." Sorry that I don't know the names of any of his brothers, or if he had any sisters.

WILL OF PHILIP WAGNER

The following is the will of Philip Wagner which is recorded in the office of the Register of Wills in Baltimore, Md. The will was dated Jan. 17, 1840. It is recorded in Wills Liber D. N. R. 17, Folio 484.

In the Name of God, Amen, I, Philip Wagoner of Baltimore County in the state of Maryland, being weak in Body but of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, considering the certainty of Death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world, when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, after my Debts and funeral charges are paid, I devise and bequeath as follows:

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Violet during her natural life, the place on which we now live containing Thirty-Three Acres, more or less, with the exception of One-eighth of an Acre, which I reserve for the use of a burying ground and I also reserve the use of a Road to the burying ground.

I give and bequeath to my Wife during her natural life all my stock, all my Farming Utensils, all my Household and Kitchen Furniture, one half of the grain which may be in the Barn, one half of the grain in the ground and also a one horse carriage.

After the death of my Wife, I leave all my property to be sold, both Real, Personal, and mixed, either for Cash or on Credit as my Executors, hereinafter mentioned, may think best as follows: I give and bequeath to my Daughter Eliza Mason, the amount of the Accounts I have against her and her husband which is One Hundred and One Dollars, and I also give to my Daughter Eliza Mason, Five Hundred Dollars in addition amounting to Six Hundred and One Dollars.

I give to my Son John Wagoner, Five Hundred Dollars which he has already recieved and for which amount I hold his Notes, with any Interest that may be due on said Notes, that is, not charging any Interest on said Notes.

I give to my Son Thomas Wagoner Five Hundred Dollars.

I give to my Daughter Rachel Watts Seven Hundred Dollars.

I give to my Son Edward Wagoner Five Hundred Dollars

The balance of my Estate I leave to be equally divided amongst my four children, John Wagoner, Thomas Wagoner, Rachel Watts, and Edward Wagoner. In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my Hand and affixed my Seal this Seventeenth Day of January, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty.

D. M. Perine

Register of Wills for Baltimore

County

In a book by Daniel Rupp called "30,000 Names of German, Swiss, Dutch, and French Immigrants, from 1727 to 1776," there are recorded the names of a number of men by the names of Wagner who came to this country at various times, and in various ships, e. g., on page 114, it states that on "Sept. 5, 1738, came Peter Wagner, Johan Christopher Wagner, Johannes Wagner," but I cannot identify any of them as our forebearers, as I do not know the names of Philip Wagner's father or grandfather. I have been told that between 1732 and 1749, twenty-one men bearing the name of Wagner migrated to this country from Germany".

Violet Wagner may have come from Pennsylvania, as her brother John lived in, or near, York, Pa., and his will is likely recorded in the Court House in York where, I think, all the oldest Pa. records are kept.

When he died, he left money to his sister Violet 's children: to Edward J., $4000.00; to Rachel (Wagner) Watts, $6000.00; and to their brother Thomas Wagner, who lived in New Orleans, La., $5000.00. The money was received during the Civil War, and the $5000 was sent by Thomas Watts to New Orleans to Thomas Wagner, but was never received by him, though it was sent through the post-office at Pikesville. But it was either lost, or stolen, during those unsettled times.

Philip was not only a farmer, but also an expert cabinet maker. My mother had two pieces of his handiwork. To me she gave one, which is a little box made "to hold his gold pieces." It is of walnut and beautifully made, with a piece of mother-of-pearl inlaid in the top. The other is a lovely inlaid jewel box which my mother gave to my sister, Blanche (Radcliff) Ritchey.

My mother said that her aunt, Rachel Watts, had some nice pieces of furniture which her father, Philip Wagner, had made.

SECOND GENERATION

Children of (1) Philip and Violet (Wonn) Wagner

(I suppose all of these children were born in Baltimore County, Md., but I am not sure.)

2-Eliza, b. 11-22-1807 Her husband's name was Mason, and that is all that I know about them and that information I obtained from Philip Wagner's Will.

3-John, b. 5-28-1809 He moved to Ohio and lived at Pleasantville. He had a number of children. Two of them, Lettie and Will, visited us when I was a child, and we lived in Frederick, Md. Will lived in Chicago at that time, and Lettie went there later on to live. A married daughter visited the relatives in Pikesville about that time, but I don't remember her name. I do not know that Lettie and Will were ever married.

4-Rachel, b. 4-3-1811 m. Benjamin Watts and lived all her married life in Pikesville, Baltimore Co., Md. Benjamin Watts was born 4-21-1803, d. 12-22-1858. Rachel died 3-6-1885. Both interred in Stone Chapel Graveyard, near Pikesville.

5-Thomas, b. 6-27-1813 He went to New Orleans, La. to live. Whether he remained there all his life, I do not know.

(I have a friend, Mrs. Allen C. Roudsbush, 2224 Williams Ave., Norwood, Ohio, whose maiden name was Wagoner, and who may be a descendant of this Thomas Wagner, who went to New Orleans, and who later may have gone to Ohio as his brother lived there. Mrs. Roudsbush's great-grandfather was Thomas Waggoner and she says he was a cabinet maker of great skill, and that John Wagner of Pleasantville, Ohio, was her grandfather's cousin.

Her family spells their name Waggoner. She says that many of her father's older relatives had the same first name as those of my grandfather's family, but we regret that we cannot find the connecting link, as we both think that we are related, and hope that some day, someone will be able to trace the relationship.

6-Edward, b. 12-3-1815 m. 8-3-1837 to Lavinia Jane, dau. of William and Elizabeth (Wilson) Horner of Finksburg, Baltimore, Co. Md.. She was born 2-19-1819, died 2-6-1869. Edward died 6-16-1870. Both interred in the Stone Chapel Graveyard, near Pikesville. In the old Family Bible, Edward's name is given as Edw<sup>ar</sup>ad, but in the Family History Book, "Andrew Moore and His Descendants," his name is given as Edward J. Wagner. I do not know which is correct. Edward was a farmer and resided on his farm near Pikesville.

7-Jacob, b. 2-2-1818, d. 2-5-1828

8-Robert, b. 3-14-1820, d. 8-3-1827

In the old Bible which belongs to Mrs. Nina H. Watts of Baltimore, the following Wagner records are given in which the dates differ somewhat from those in the Family Bible which belonged to my Aunt Agnes Leatherwood. I do not know that the difference is important, but I insert here the record from Mrs. Watts' Bible also.

"Violette Wonn married Philys Wagner, Jan. 18, 1807.

Children of Violette and Philys Wagner.

Eliza Wagner born May 28, 1807

John       "       "   May 28, 1809

How To Trace A Line Of Descent

Suppose that Robert M. Ritchey, Jr., wishes to know how he is descended from (1) Philip Wagner. He will first look in the Index and find that his own number is (156). He will then find that his mother's number is (89) and that she was a daughter of Annie Rebecca (Wagner) Radcliff, whose number is (27). Turning back to this number, he will see that she was the daughter of Edward Wagner, whose number is (6) and that Edward was the son of Philip Wagner, whose number is (1).

Robert M. Ritchey, Jr., will then see that he is the fifth in descent from Philip Wagner, who is the first person in this genealogy.
